

Autumn Daze In Branson's Music City

Thursday, September 14: Fall foliage, pumpkins, and delicious crisp apples let us know the seasons are changing. We jump into fall at Branson's annual Autumn Daze Arts, Craft and Music Festival in historic downtown. There are crafts, food booths, sidewalk sales, live music, and the Branson celebrity autograph booth. Enjoy a relaxing ride on Branson's Scenic Railway showcasing the beauty of the Ozarks. You'll love this narrated vintage train tour through the Ozark foothills. After a group dinner at one of the scrumptious local restaurants we're headed to our reserved seats for one of Branson's most famous music shows! The Duttons puts on an delightful show with musicians, comedy, and hot dance numbers.

Our lodging will be the Hotel Grand Victorian which is located on Hwy 76 with a year-round gazebo pool house. Victorian charm along with stylish rooms, mini frig, coffeemaker, and free wifi, will have you resting in comfort. Meals—D

Friday, September 15: Start the day with some toe-tapping, hand-clapping great music by Buck Trent— Branson's Entertainer of the Year— and his band of extremely talented musicians. All while enjoying a delicious home cooked breakfast. Handmade crafts by local artisans are what you'll find at the Branson Craft Mall. Watch live demos at this working craft village. On the way out of town we'll stop for sampling and shopping at the Curling Vine Winery. Meals—B
